

Instruction Sequence

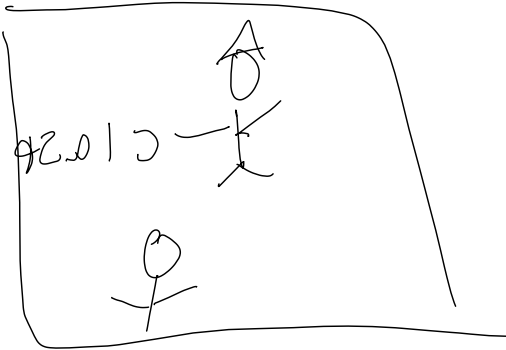

Scene commences with player slightly behind the magical mentor.
The magical mentor demonstrates how a magical wand can be used to conjure up letters by saying the letters' names while writing their shapes.

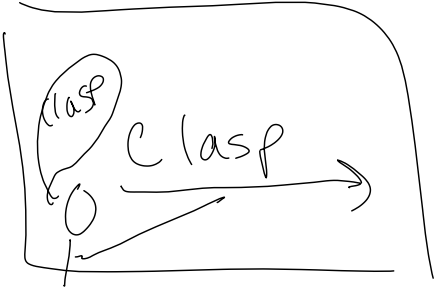

The mentor flicks the wand to flip the word and sends it away from the player and the mentor.

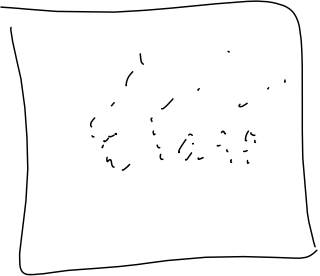

The magical spelling creates a clasp.

The magical mentor explains that the casted spells can be dispelled by someone else. The mentor prompts the player to trace the letters, say the names, and then underline the word and red it to dispel the magic.

Player then underlines word and reads the word out loud.

The spell dissipates and has no effect.

Practice Sequence

Player is prompted to write the letters and say their names.
